Garland "Bubba" Evely Honored with Leaders in Christian Service Award

On April 5, 2016, Milligan College recognized 11 local leaders who have demonstrated servant leadership in their careers and community. The ceremony was held at the college's annual Leaders in Christian Service program in Milligan's Mary B. Martin Auditorium in Seeger Memorial Chapel. Bank of Tennessee Senior Vice President and City Executive for Unicoi County, Garland "Bubba" Evely was among those were honored. The purpose of the ceremony is to identify professionals who are shining examples of Christian leadership in the workplace, community and church.

"Bank of Tennessee employees are more than bankers. They are family members, church worshipers, community leaders, and just good 'ole neighbors. Bubba Evely exemplifies this servant-leader profile. We are both proud of Bubba and proud to call him a friend and officer of Bank of Tennessee," said Dale Fair, President and COO of Bank of Tennessee

"I am humbled at receiving such an honor and have been blessed to have Christian men & women in my life that lifted me up when I needed it most. I only hope that I, in turn, have done that for someone else," said Evely.
