October 25, 2018 - Detra Cleven, Director of Business Services, is pleased to announce Adam Snapp has joined the Treasury Management Team at Bank of Tennessee.

Snapp has been added as the Treasury Department Coordinator, and in this role he will be responsible for daily management of bank wide cash and treasury management activities. He will supervise and work with the treasury team by providing support and guidance in the calling effort. Additionally he will assist in providing resources and support for calling on new profitable client relationships and the ongoing consultative support and expansion for existing clients.

During her announcement, Cleven said, "Adam brings strength and expertise to our department and excellent treasury skills. His knowledge of payment centric products and services allows us to broaden our customer service footprint in Northeast Tennessee and Western North Carolina. Our team is unrivaled in this area; no one offers what we have in regards to customer service, products, and services. Adam's arrival only adds to that strength and we couldn't be happier he is on the team."

Adam comes from a long background of treasury and financial services, with over 10 years' experience. Previously he served as Treasury Management Sales Analyst at another financial institution in the Tri-Cities area. Adam is a graduate of East Tennessee State University and David Crockett High School.

Bank of Tennessee is a locally owned, community bank headquartered in East Tennessee with 21 branch locations and over $1.3 Billion in assets. For more information, visit www.bankoftennessee.com or call (866) 378.9500. Member FDIC.
